

Write For Us!

The Catholic News Online is currently accepting submissions on a rolling basis for the Blog section of our website. We currently house four blog categories under the umbrellas of; faith, lifestyle, culture and youth called 'Youth Speak'. Poems and Spoken Word pieces are accepted for this fourth umbrella.

Writers Guidelines:

We are primarily interested in:

First Person Testimonials of Quarantine Life — The Good and The Challenging.

- What's being done in your parish
- Neighborhood
- Family Time
- Inspiring Stories/Stories of Hope
- Cooking forays
- Parenting
- Around The House Projects
- Relationships
- Faith Journey

Requirements:

Articles must be 6-700 words in length and be light and humorous, hopeful and inspiring or thought provoking in tone.

Original photos maybe included as illustrations as well as original video footage.

Original being photos and videos to which you own the copyright.

We particularly encourage the male perspective and submissions. Men are historically underrepresented in the narrative, but their contributions are also very valuable at this time.

Please include with your submission:- Your full name, contact number, parish to which you belong. Anonymous submissions will not be published. You may also include a short 1-2 line bio. Eg. Lily Smith is a writer, student and member of the Santa Rosa Parish.

Submit your pieces to stories@catholicct.org

Kindly note, we reserve the right to copyedit pieces for clarity and correct grammar without the oversight of the author and we reserve the right to refrain from publishing pieces that do not align with the ethos of the Catholic Church and the expectations of our readers.

Thank you for your interest!
