A teacher shall not be appointed to a school if the denominational board objects to such an appointment on moral or religious grounds. Similarly, if a teacher be found unsatisfactory on these very grounds, moral or religious, the denominational authority shall have the right to request his removal to another school after due investigation. (The Concordat of 1960)

The following declaration is to be completed by persons who wish to be placed in Catholic Schools and who are of faiths/denominations other than Catholic. A copy of the completed Declaration is to be returned to the Catholic Education Board of Management.

Declaration

I understand the following:

- a Catholic school has as its aim the provision of education enlightened by faith as taught by the Catholic Church such that the school's Catholic students can grow in their knowledge, love, and practice of the Catholic faith;
- the School is to be a Catholic community and center of Catholic life and worship;

I freely declare that

- My conscience does not prevent me from assuming employment in a Catholic school in accordance with the agreement;
- I will at all times demonstrate a respectful and sympathetic sensitivity to the aims and nature of the school and to the Catholic belief and practices of the school; and
- While employed at the school I will exhibit a lifestyle respectful of the morals and values of the Catholic Faith
